STAKE FOR SOUTHERN MAID

SPEEDY GIDDINGS FILLY WINS VICTORIA STAKES AT WOODBINE.

Sherwood Beats Calgary in Prince of Wales Handicap, Thanks to Energetic Efforts of Jockey Wilson.

Toronto, Ont., May 30.—The colors of the Davies and Giddings stables were again successful at Woodbine this afternoon. The former furnished the winner of the Victoria Stakes, while Widow Wise won the sixth race for the Giddings stable.

The races were run before a large gathering and over a track that was in perfect condition. The fields in a majority of the races, while small, were well balanced and good centests resulted. The first race, which was for maidens, furnished a stirring finish in which Burning Daylight, closing with a rush in the last sixteenth, just managed to get up to beat out the supposed "good thing" Mansolus.

A coterie that has been unusually fortunate in wagering on horses that have won during the meeting, and whose chances on form appeared none too good, supported Mausolus keavily both here and elsewhere. Mausolus ran away from his opposition in the early stages and opened up a big lead. He looked a certain winner at the furloug post, but at the end tired badly and was beaten out in the final stride. Bryndor, despite a change of riders from Ambrose to Burns, again showed a poor performance.

Southern Maid, the two-year-old Plaudit filly that has been pronounced the fastest juvenile racing on the circuit, added another to the many races that the Dayles stable has won at the meeting when she galloped home an easy winner in the Victoria Stakes, a dash of five furlongs, $2,000 added. She led all the way and beat Miss Gayle by a length. The latter showed a decidedly improved race. Wilson was substituted for Turner and the shift yielded good results. Owner Ed Moore was in a quandary over Miss Gayle's poor race on Thursday and he tagted her back this afternoon principally to see if her form on the previous day was true.

The tabled history of the Victoria Stakes is as follows:

The latter, making his first start as a three-year-old, was conceding much weight to everything in the race. He was a keen factor from the start and only weakened in the last couple of strides. This race should improve the colt and he will be troublesome from now on.

NEW YORK RACING AGAIN COMES INTO ITS OWN

Crowd Estimated at 35,000 Takes Part in Revival of Sport at Belmont Park-Betting Kept Within Bounds of Law

New York, May 30.—Clad in gray uniforms, a force of more than 200 Pinkerton guards marched into the grandstand at Belmont Park this aftermoon. Their coming heraided the return of racing to the tracks around New York after an enforced absence of neaty three years' duration. But the march of the Pinkertons emphasized more than the resurrection of a great sport. It brought to prominent notice the fact that racing is not to be what New Yorkers knew in the dear dead days, that betting with any form of record attached will be as foreign to the tracks as a demijohn to a W. C. T. U. convention. Therefore, the easy birds who came homing to Belmont Park in the hope of some small crumbs of their former pleasure shook their heads sadly and said that racing had changed for the worst. But the bugle was there, the horses, the silks of joekeys and the thrill of thundering boofs. That meant much to race hungry New Yorkers.

The Westchester Racing Association is doing all in its power to put an absolute extinguisher on betting. The Pinkerton men were scattered through the stand as early as 1:29 o'clock, when the vanguard of the spectators began to arrive. Their instructions were to keen a sharp eve open for the extenders of olds, for the powers of racing realize that the success of the experiment in reviving the sport depends upon the strict enforcement of the gambling law. The officers of the racing associations will insist on preventing all illegal betting. And they have good backing, too. Three or four gamblers from Harlem, formerly identified with the bookmaking game, were see a circulating in the grandstand before the first race. They tipped off their intimate friends that it was possible to get a bet down in the old-fashioned way, but the big bookmakers were not operating and the transactions were well covered up. Too close a surveillance was maintained to permit a general or open attempt to lay odds.

At lenst 35,000 people were estimated to be in attendance just before the classic Metropolitan Handleap was scheduled to be run.

While the gates to the grounds opened as early as ten o'clock when the "regulars" began to file in, the clubhouse and private box patrons of the sport followed their usual rule, timing their arrival at about one o'clock. All through the morning the Long Island Railroad and the trolley lines were unloading their overtaxed cars at the park entrances and the many thousands of expectant followers, like so many contented pilgrims, went jubilantly through the gates.

Yesterday the four associations which are conducting the Belmont Park meeting made the following formal statement:

"Believing that the sport of racing should as an enjoyment be within the reach of those of moderate means as well as those who are willing to pay the higher and necessary tax for its support, the associations have set aside a portion of the grandstand and lawn at Belmont Park to which enclosure the admission will be $1.

"It is realized that the crowds may be large in this so-called 'free field' and the difficulty of preventing gambling offences thereby greatly augnetted.

"The associations therefore appeal to this public which proposes to attend the races to come here in the spirit of co-operation and with an equal purpose to observe the law.

"Should it be found impossible to effectively vrevent violations the associations will be obliged to close that portion of the grounds."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Whisk Broom II. is reported to have worked a mile in 1:40 over the Belmont Park track a few days

The Brookdale Stable of Messrs, Albert and Simon Dyment, will not be shipped from Toronto to Blue Bonnets, but will rest at Woodbine until the open-ing at Hamilton, Rothwell York, a jockey, was fatally injured while exercising a horse on the Belmont track yesterday. Falling from the saddle, his feet caught in the stirrup and he was dragged forty yards before the horse was caught. His chest was crushed and he was otherwise hurt.

Harry Giddings, of Toronto, owner of Hearts of Oak, was delighted by the receipt of this thoughtful cable message from the late governor-general of Canada: "Hearty congratulations on winning the King's Plate. Well done, Bassetlaw, Hope St. Bass is also fulfilling his great promise.—Grey."

Charles Boyle of Woodstock, is probably the only owner who has won Queen's Plates in three territories. He won in Ontario with Roddy Pringle, and before that in Quebec with Speculum. Besides these he has to his credit a Queen's Plate won with Red Common, in England, eleven years ago. This race was run at Derby, and Red Common was ridden by Elmer James, now living at Toronto. It was a meeting with his old rider at Woodbine that recalled the race to the Woodstock veteran.

recalled the race to the Woodstock veteran.

Earl Grey, whose congratulatory cablegram to the Ontario Jockey Club has previously been made public, is not the only distinguished patron of Woodbine who retains pleasant memories of his visits. The following cable was received by President Seagram from His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught: "Grateful thanks to yourself and directors for kind telegram. Duchess makes satisfactory progress.—Arthur." From an earlier governor-general, the Earl of Minto, also came this remembrance. "Hearty congratulations to the owner of King's Plate winner. Delighted that the meeting is such a success. Very best wishes to all old friends from all of us.—Minto."

INCREASED AUSTRALIAN STAKE VALUES.

The Australian turf flourishes greatly and the extent to which the values of its principal stake races have increased in the course of the last five years is quite remarkable. In this feature there is active rivalry between the two leading Australian organizations, the Australian Jockey Club of Sydney and the Victoria Racing Club of Melbourne, a condition regarded with complacency by owners in general. The following exhibit of the additions to the chief events fostered by the two organizations shows a striking contrast between the values announced for the next Australian racing season and that of 1908-9;

CAUGH HILL STURDY RACER

SON OF CAUGHNAWAGA CARRIES TOP WEIGHT TO VICTORY AT DOUGLAS PARK.

Beats Best of Western Sprinters in Memorial Handican-Foundation Reduces Mile and Sixteenth Track Record to 1:44.

Louisville, Ky., May 30.—J. M. Zimmer's sturdy Caugh Hill, carrying top weight of 126 pounds, won the $2,500 net that was the winner's portion in the Memorial Handicap at Douglas Park this afternoon. The victory only came to the 'big train,' as Caugh Hill is known here, after a most trying effort in which his courage was tested to the utmost to wear down the speedy Round the World. The latter was tried with blinkers today and the change worked advantageously, for she displayed keen speed from the start and had a commanding lead until the last turn, where Caugh Hill began to gain gradually. He stood a punishing drive in the stretch and got up in the closing stride. Frequent interference contributed largely towards the elimination of several supposedly likely factors in the race. This applied particularly to Helen Barbee and Grover Hughes. Both were extensive sufferers immediately after the start. Little Father, another contender, became involved in a fam in the seramble for positions following the rise of the barrier. Round the World, Caugh Hill, Azylaide, Sebago and Jim Basey escaped interference and were always in the first flight. Azylaide ran surprisingly well and finished fastest of all.

Francis J. Pons, general manager of the Charleston track, was a visitor today and tried to engage a capable rider to handle John Furlong at Toronto tomorrow in the Toronto Cup.

Jockey Ganz was suspended for five days by the judges after the first race for cutting across sharply after the start with Bob Black, Jockey Steele was suspended for the rest of the meeting was distributed to horsemen this afternoon. Trainer W. S. Trevey, who shandline Hawthorn, stated today that the Buschemeyer crack is coming around to his best form in great style and that he will probably be a starter at this meeting and likewise if he can be gotten ready he will go to the post in the Latonia Derby.

The fifth race, a handleap at one mile and a sixteenth, divided interest with the stake race, as a quinted of good horses were engaged in the cont amount.

The sport was keen and thoroughly enjoyed. Favorites were successful in four instances, the only disappointments being Bird Man in the second race and Little Father in the feature. Diversified backing for all the starters enabled the backers of winners to obtain liberal odds.

The talent began auspiciously when Bob Black in the opener came home a good-margin in advance of Alador and Dr. Samuel. David Craig, a supposedly strong factor, was eliminated when he wheeled at the start and was practically left.

Frances M., which gave much promise at Charleston last winter, but has been racing ordinarily in recent starts furnished a surprise in the second by leading for the entire trip to win by half a length to last whiter, but has been racing ordinarily in recent starts furnished a surprise in the second by leading for the entire trip to win by half a length from Harwood and Bushy Head. Bird Man, the favorite, flattered his backers until the last furlong, then retired fast.

Theresa Gill took a band of useful sprinters into camp in the third race and, under a hustling ride from Martin, never left the outcome in doubt. The same rider also landed Strong a winner in the closing dash. This rider of late has been showing vast improvement in his work.

Jockey Musgrave, by winning on Foundation, scored his first bracket of the season on a Kentucky track.

Hawthorn has gained in weight on an average of two pounds a day since his return from Lexington, where he contracted the fever that kept him out of the Kentucky Derby and Kentucky Handicap. Considerable interest is being manifested in the racing tomorrow as the card staged by Secretary Magian is considered one of the best on a Kentucky track in years. The fields in all the races are small, but bring together nearly every crack, including Imperator, Little Nephew and Old Rosebud, the three outstanding best youngsters for the present in the country. They will try conclusions at equal weights. John W. Schorr will go to Lexington on Sunday next and look over several yearlings that he has in view.

The funeral of John Rodegap will take place tomorrow at 9 a, m. Interment of the remains will be in St. Louis cemetery. The pall bearers will be
S. K. Hughes, W. S. Hopkins, William Woodard and P. M. West.
W. H. Laudeman has had poor luck with his noted broodmare, Portia Swett, the dam of Sebago and Salesia. This daughter of Six Dixon has not had a foal for three seasons, though still a young mare.
She is in good health now, however, and Laudeman hopes to have better luck with her next spring.
She has been mated this season to Peep O'Day.

Went to post at 4:33. At post 7 minutes. Start fair and slow. Won easily; second and third driving.
WINK BROOM II, was uneasy at the post and had to be held behind the others and, when they were sent of, he was away poorly, but in a few strides he closed up and was within handy distance of the leader on the far turn and, after coming into the stretch, he moved to the front with a rush and won easing up. (M. MILLER was off poorly, but closed a great gap and ran a capital race. MERIDIAN followed the leaders close up for three-quarters and was tiring at the finish, ALDEBARAN closed a big gap and finished with a rush. BARD OF HOPE quit after setting a fast pace for three-quarters. SPRING BOARD ran a fast seven eighths. SPRITE and LIGHT O' M' LIFE ran disappointingly.
